* SUBMISSION DETAILS *

- Include four copies of the manuscript (may be submitted electronically via email - no hard copy required if submitted electronically). Articles should not exceed 9,000 words in length (including abstract, references, tables, and figures), typewritten double-spaced on white paper with about 1.5 inch margins. (Please note that articles submitted to the Policy Matters section of JIMI should not exceed 6,000 words in length.) To ensure anonymity in the review process, three copies should have no title page or heading that identifies authors and institutional or governmental affiliation. The fourth copy should have a cover page stating title, author(s), institutional affiliation, e-mail address, telephone, and fax number.

- An abstract of 75 to 100 words should be on a separate sheet.

- Normally, receipt of manuscript submissions will be acknowledged promptly by e-mail.

- Submitted manuscripts will not be returned to the author(s).

Please send manuscripts to:

* SUBMISSION DETAILS *

All submissions should be made online at the Journal of European Integration Manuscript Central site (<http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/geui>). New users should first create an account. Once a user is logged onto the site submissions should be made via the Author Centre. Authors should prepare and upload two versions of their manuscript as Microsoft Word documents:

1) The original manuscript ("file not for review") including a cover page with title, abstract of 100-150 words, keywords and full correspondence details;
2) Anonymised version ("main document"), where all document information identifying the author should be removed to allow the file to be sent anonymously to referees.

Therefore please remove the cover page, acknowledgements, as well as any other references to yourself.

Formally, submissions must meet the following requirements to be considered for review:

- Maximum length of 8000 words including notes, references, tables, figures and diagrams. Please note that 475 words have to be deducted from the word budget for each full page of tables, figures or diagrams.
- The original manuscript shall provide a cover page including title, abstract of 100-150 words summarising the significant coverage and findings, 4-6 keywords and full correspondence details (street address, telephone, fax and email address) of the corresponding author.
- The author(s) must also submit an anonymised version of the manuscript, where all information identifying the author(s) should be removed to allow the submission to be sent anonymously to referees.
- Please make sure that the manuscript is submitted as a Word document (and not as a PDF file).
- The Journal welcomes submissions of proposals for Special Issues. An annual call for such proposals will be launched by the Editors about six months before the deadline for submission.

* SUBMISSION DETAILS *

Preparation of Copy: IMR has moved to electronic processing of manuscripts, book reviews and related materials. Submissions, correspondence, revisions, etc. should be made, whenever possible, by electronic exchanges over the Internet. Electronic version of the manuscript (e.g., Word file) should be emailed to imr@cmsny.org

1. Type all copy - including indented matter, footnotes, and references - double-spaced.

2. Save each table in a separate file. Insert a location note. e.g., 'Table 2 about here,' at the appropriate place in the text. Tables should not contain lines or more than 20 two-digit columns or the equivalent.

3. Type footnotes (double-spaced) on separate sheets. Footnotes should include grant numbers or credits but not author's affiliation.

4. Include an abstract of not more than 100 words summarizing the key findings of the paper.
5. Please note that Word 2007 is not yet compatible with journal production systems. Unfortunately, the journal cannot accept Microsoft Word 2007 documents until such time that a stable production version is released. Please use Word's 'Save As' option therefore to save your documents as an older (.doc) file type.

6. There are three preferred formats for digital artwork submission: Encapsulated PostScript (EPS), Portable Document Format (PDF), and Tagged Image Format (TIFF). We suggest that line art be saved as EPS files. Alternately, these may be saved as PDF files at 600 dots per inch (dpi) or better at final size. Tone art, or photographic images, should be saved as TIFF files with a resolution of 300 dpi at final size. For combination figures, or artwork that contains both photographs and labeling, we recommend saving figures as EPS files, or as PDF files with a resolution of 600 dpi or better at final size. More detailed information on the submission of electronic artwork can be found at www.blackwellpublishing.com/authors/digill.asp

7. We can read files created in most standard word processing packages, however, if you have any questions, please call (212) 337-3080. Table prepared in word processors should be exported to (saved as) ASCII, comma-delimited files. Table can also be created in Excel. All disks should be either IBM-compatible of high-density Macintosh. Please indicate programs used on disk label.

8. The mailing address for the Center for Migration Studies is:
27 Carmine Street, New York, NY 10017, U.S.A.

Manuscripts should be sent to: The Editor, JEMS, Sussex Centre for Migration Research, University of Sussex, Falmer, Brighton, BN1 9SJ, UK. Submissions should also be made by e-mail attachment to jems@sussex.ac.uk – please follow the guidance below. All submissions will be acknowledged.

The preferred length for articles is between 5,000 and 8,000 words. Longer articles may be accepted at the discretion of the Editor. All submitted articles must be original and not be under consideration by any other journal. Unsolicited articles are referred to specialist readers for anonymous comment before a decision is made on publication. The Research Note section carries shorter pieces, typically of 2,000–3,000 words. Comments on any aspect within the journal's field of coverage which is of current interest and importance, along with comments on articles previously published in JEMS may be submitted to the journal's Debates section. Authors' attention is also drawn to the information on style and presentation which is given below.

Articles which do not conform to the following will be returned for modification before being read. Please read this carefully.

Format

Submissions should be accompanied by a covering letter confirming that the manuscript is original and not under consideration elsewhere. Full contact details for the author(s) should be supplied.

Submission by post: authors should submit one double-spaced, typed copy on A4 paper with margins on all four sides of at least 2½ cm. Each page, including tables, figures, maps, references and notes, should be numbered. Use only one side of the paper. An electronic version should also be submitted to jems@sussex.ac.uk – see below for details.

Submission by e-mail: When submitting an electronic version of their paper (this can be done by e-mail, or by posting a CD), authors should indicate the software used, and whether the disk has been processed on a PC or on an Apple-MacIntosh computer. Tables, figures and maps should be saved in separate files and not embedded in the text. For notes and references, please use numbered/alphabetical lists rather than automatic note or bookmark formats. Please also note the further guidance given below on tables and figures, and on notes.

Title, author name(s) and a brief biographical note on each author should be typed on a separate page. An abstract of 100–200 words should accompany article submissions. Authors should supply up to five keywords. Abstracts are not required for Debates.

Up to three categories of sub-titles may be used. The first paragraph after a subtitle is not indented, whereas subsequent paragraphs are.

Tables and figures should submitted as separate electronic files, be kept as simple as possible, clearly set out, with adequate headings and source information. Do not place illustration files within the text. Where possible, tables should be created as Word Tables, and graphs should be created and saved in Excel. All tables, graphs and figures must be numbered consecutively in the order in which they are referred to in the text (eg ‘Table 1 about here’). No table, graph or figure must exceed the page dimensions of 125 x 210mm.

All figures originating from drawing programmes (eg Illustrator, Freehand, CorelDraw) should be submitted in both the originating programme and as .jpg files. Continuous tone images (e.g. photographs) should be saved as .tif files at a minimum of 300dpi. Use Ariel or Helvetica fonts for text within figures, ensuring that text size does not fall below 7pt when the illustration is at page size.

Submission of mss: Manuscripts should be submitted in electronic form online at: http://journalpro.fi/journals/ECS
Please follow the instructions given there for authors, starting the procedure by clicking the REGISTER button. Manuscripts may be submitted as a hard copy. Then authors need to send one copy of the manuscript and a diskette containing the manuscript, fully numbered and typed in double spacing throughout, on one side only of white A4 or US standard size paper, to European Journal of Cultural Studies, Department of Sociology and Social Psychology, FIN-33014 University of Tampere, Finland [email: pekka.j.rantanen@uta.fi]
Covering letter: please attach to every submission a letter confirming that all authors have agreed to the submission and that the article is not currently being considered for publication by any other journal.
Format of mss: Each manuscript should contain:
(i) title page with full title and subtitle (if any). For the purposes of blind refereeing, full name of each author with current affiliation and full address/phone/fax/email details plus short biographical note should be supplied on a separate sheet. Owing to the broad range of subject matter, authors are encouraged to supply the names of one or more potential referees with full address information included.
(ii) abstract of 100-150 words
(iii) up to 10 key words
(iv) main text and word count -- suggested target is about 7000 words (including notes and references). Text to be clearly organized, with a clear hierarchy of headings and subheadings and quotations exceeding 40 words displayed, indented, in the text

* SUBMISSION DETAILS *

You must be registered as an author to submit an article to the JCER. If you are registered as a reader, but not an author, you should register by clicking HERE and selecting the author button to register with your existing username and password. If you have any problems please email JCER | Journal Administration

What Sort of Articles Does the JCER Publish?

The JCER publishes two kinds of paper: full-length original research articles (7,000 to 10,000 words) and shorter commentary pieces (3,000 to 6,000 words) which critically examine and provide a reflective discussion on the literature and research direction of a particular topic of interest relating to European Studies

GENERAL DETAILS FOR ALL CONTRIBUTORS

All contributions are accepted on the understanding that they are the original work of the author(s).

Manuscripts
Manuscripts should be formatted in either Word (.doc) or Rich Text File (.rtf) format.

Submissions
All submissions should be written in British English. Full-length research articles should not exceed 10,000 words in length and should be written as clearly and concisely as possible. Shorter articles, including commentaries and policy analysis, should not exceed 6,000 words. Book reviews and research notes should be approximately 1,000 words in length. Manuscripts must include a 100-150 word abstract and a short biography of about 70 words. The first page should bear the title of the paper together with the name(s) and institutional affiliation(s) and title(s) of the author(s). Only main headings and subheadings should be used. Footnotes should be kept to an absolute minimum. All articles must conform to the JCER style requirements.

Submission Preparation Checklist
As part of the submission process, authors are required to check off their submission's compliance with all of the following items, and submissions may be returned to authors that do not adhere to these guidelines.

The submission has not been previously published, nor is it before another journal for consideration (or an explanation has been provided in Comments to the Editor).

The submission file is in Microsoft Word or Rich Text File (RTF) format.

When available, the URLs to access references online are provided, including those for open access versions of the reference. The URLs are ready to click (e.g., http://pkp.sfu.ca).

The text is double-spaced; uses a 12-point font; employs italics, rather than underlining (except with URL addresses); and all illustrations, figures, and tables are placed within the text at the appropriate points, rather than at the end.

The text adheres to the stylistic and bibliographic requirements outlined in the Author Guidelines, which is found in About the Journal.

If submitting to a peer-reviewed section of the journal, the instructions in Ensuring a Blind Review have been followed.

E-MAIL MANUSCRIPTS to the COMPARATIVE POLITICAL STUDIES Editorial Office as Word files: cps@u.washington.edu. Submit an anonymous manuscript file (all identifying information removed), plus a separate page with the title, author(s)' names and affiliations, keywords, and complete contact information for the corresponding author (mail and e-mail addresses as well as telephone and fax numbers). The abstract must state precisely the intellectual problem under consideration, the method or argument addressed to the problem, and the conclusions reached by the author(s). Articles should be double spaced, prepared with a 12-point font (Times Roman preferred), and 25 to 35 pages long (maximum 10,000 words). Longer submissions may not be considered. Count all pages and begin the abstract, reference section, footnotes, tables, figures, and appendices (if any) on separate pages. Footnotes and bibliographic citations should follow the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (5th edition). A style sheet may be obtained upon request. A brief bibliographical paragraph describing each author's current affiliation, research interests, and recent publications should accompany the manuscript. Submission of a manuscript implies commitment to publish in the journal. Please state in your cover letter that the material has not been published elsewhere in substantially similar form or with similar content. Authors in doubt about what constitutes prior publication should consult the editor. E-mailed submissions will be assigned a manuscript number and acknowledged. Unless requested otherwise, decision letters will be sent by e-mail to the corresponding author.

Formal requirements
Review essays should cover at least three books or relevant articles. They should relate these explicitly to the field of international political sociology. Review essays should be substantial pieces of work ranging between 6000 and 8000 words. They should be formatted according to the overall IPS guidelines regarding referencing and style. These are available at http://www.blackwellpublishing.com/submit.asp?ref=1749-5679&site=1. Proposals which would not meet the requirements would not be taken into consideration.

Publication procedure
Review essays should be submitted both to ips_review_l@samizdat.net and to ips@ceri- sciences-po.org. The essays will be subjected to a double-blind peer-review before publication.

IPS is published quarterly in March, June, September, and December.

Manuscripts will be accepted for review on the understanding that their content is original and that the manuscript has not been accepted for publication or review elsewhere. Manuscripts that fall within the aims and scope of IPS or clearly related to international political sociology must be sent electronically to both didier.bigo.conflits@gmail.com and ips@ceri-sciences-po.org. They should not exceed 10,000 words and should be sent in two files (preferably Word or PDF files); one file should be sent ready for double blind peer review: author shall have removed all self-references and all characteristic that may identify him or her (name, affiliation, title of conference if paper presented in a conference…). The other one should contain the manuscript with all necessary information. Both files should contain a short abstract of the article and keywords. Once received, the article will be sent to relevant outside experts and scholars for a double anonymous peer review. All new items are published on a space available basis and decisions made on publication are the discretion of the editors of IPS.

In order to help broaden the community engaging in international studies, the journal will facilitate the submission of articles in languages other than English. The possibilities currently under consideration are French, Spanish, Italian and German. Translation into English of the final version of the article should be taken care of by the author.

Peer Review Policy: International Journal of Comparative Sociology adheres to a rigorous double-blind reviewing policy in which the identity of both the reviewer and author are always concealed from both parties.

Please send two copies of your manuscript to: Professor Jeffrey Kentor, Department of Sociology, University of Utah, 380 S. 1530 E., Room 301, Salt Lake City, UT 84112, USA (e-mail: IJCS@soc.utah.edu).

Authors are encouraged to submit papers in machinereadable form or via email to the journal editor. This should be as an unformatted text file on disk together with a printed version. Alternatively, papers may be submitted as typed manuscript, which should be doublespaced and on single sides. Left and right margins should be at least 40mm wide. Two copies of the typescript are required.

Covering letter

Please attach to every submission a letter confirming that all authors have agreed to the submission and that the article is not currently being considered for publication by any other journal.

Format of mss

Manuscripts should be typed on one side of the paper, double-spaced, with ample margins and bear the title of the contribution and the name(s) of the author(s) on a separate sheet of paper. The full postal address/phone/fax/email details of each author should also be included. All pages should be numbered. Contributions should normally be between 4000 and 10,000 words in length. They should include an abstract of about 100 words and up to six key words. The abstract should cover the overall purpose or research problem, stated early in the abstract, the methodology used, including the research design, sample, and data collection methods, a concise discussion of a few significant research findings and an overview of the main conclusions of the paper. The journal uses notes where necessary. Historical, documentary or archival sources should be cited in endnotes. Discursive endnotes are also allowed. Endnotes are signalled in the text by superscript numbers. References in both the text and in any endnotes should follow Harvard style. References are cited in the text thus: author, date: page; an alphabetical References section should follow the text (and endnotes if any), using the Harvard system. Titles of journals should not be abbreviated.

Manuscripts should be submitted to cep@palgrave.com in Word format. The title page should be a separate file, or may be included in the covering e-mail.
In extreme circumstances we will accept paper submissions, but this may considerably delay the review of the paper. Authors should submit 3 copies of their article (with any original illustrations and including all references and notes) to:

- In North America: Professor Martin A. Schain, Editor - Professor Martin A. Schain, Editor - Comparative European Politics, Center for European Studies, New York University, 285 Mercer Street, 7th floor, New York, NY 10003, USA.
- In Rest of World: Professor Colin Hay, Editor - Comparative European Politics, Department of Politics, University of Sheffield, Elmfield, Northumberland Road, Sheffield S10 2TU, UK

Authors should confirm at point of submission that their article is not under consideration for publication elsewhere.

Comparative European Politics publishes review essays, not individual book reviews. Individuals interested in writing review essays should send inquiries or full proposals (a short abstract describing the theme of the essay plus bibliographic information on the works to be reviewed - please select no more than three recently published books) to David J. Bailey, POLSIS, University of Birmingham, Birmingham B15 2TT, UK d.j.bailey@bham.ac.uk

Articles should be in English, typed in double spacing (including all notes and references). Articles should not normally exceed 8,000 words in length. Print a word count at the end of the text, together with the date of the manuscript. Provide an abstract of 150-200 words with the article, plus a list of up to 6 keywords suitable for indexing and abstracting services. Give authors’ full postal and e-mail addresses as well as telephone and fax numbers.

On acceptance of an article authors are requested to send an electronic version of their article on disk, preferably as a Word file. It is important that your manuscript should be an exact printout of what is on the disk.
